NORMAN BERMAN

v Obituary > Condolences > Flowers

BERMAN, Norman Norman Berman, the Brooklyn Dodgers' ballboy, joined his team on January 19, 2018. Born in Brooklyn, NY in 1928. In 1947, after being cut during spring training from the Dodgers, he was asked to be the ballboy. This was the year that Jackie Robinson broke the color barrier in major league baseball. He always cherished that experience and spoke often about his interactions with Jackie Robinson and other well-known Dodgers. After returning from Korea, Norman moved to West Palm Beach with his first wife Evelyn where he was a hairdresser for over 30 years. He was the owner of Norman's Coiffure Design. They raised two children together. In 1987, Evelyn passed away and shortly after he met and married Doris Weeks. He and Doris traveled the world and played golf. They had a wonderful life together. Norman is survived by his wife Doris, daughter Alecia Sachs (Edward), son Jay, step-children, Sharon Richmond (Bill), Chip Weeks, Gary Weeks (Diane), Sherri Koolen Weeks, grandchildren Dustin (Mandy), Mallory, Eric (Sarah), and his great-grandson, Max. He is also survived by grandchildren, Michael (Natalie), Kyler, Kelsey, Jackie (Dan), John and great-grandchildren Adrianna, Alyssa, Arielle, Grayson and Mackenzie. Services will be in the Chapel at Hillcrest Memorial Park, 6411 Parker Ave, West Palm Beach on Sunday, January 21, 2018 at 1:00PM. Please make all donations to Alper Jewish Community Center Apartment Program, 5841 Corporate Way #200, West Palm Beach, FL 33411.
