
John Rodney Yeglinski

GLEN ALLEN, VA | John Rodney Yeglinski, 65, of western Hanover County, Virginia, was released from his pain and suffering December 15, 2016, after a long illness, surrounded by his family. He has gone on to receive his heavenly healing.

John remained positive throughout and was a true testament of God's love, often saying that Jesus had his back and He still does. Preceded in death by his parents, Joseph Yeglinski and Constance Weinshank Yeglinski, he is survived by his wife, Lynda Smith Yeglinski; son, John Michael Yeglinski; daughter, Kari Elizabeth Gill and her husband, James Gill; brother, Ken Yeglinski and sister-in-law, Jane and nephew, Kenneth; special nieces, Amanda Shackett and Elizabeth Gregory; and a host of extended family.

Born in Greenfield, Mass., John grew up in Brooklyn, N.Y. He went to Long Island University and East Carolina University. John played professional ball for the farm teams of the Yankees, Giants and Orioles. He worked in sales for McGeorge Toyota.

The family will receive friends from 2 to 5 p.m. Sunday at the West Chapel of Bennett Funeral Home, 11020 W. Broad Street, Glen Allen, Va. A funeral service will be held 11 a.m. Monday, December 19, at St. Matthew's United Methodist Church. Interment will follow in the church cemetery. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the St. Matthew's United Methodist Church Neighbors Food Pantry or Meals on Wheels.
