

OBITUARIESSylvio J. Brignoli, 90

PINE PLAINS - Sylvio J. Brignoli, 90, passed away Sunday, Jan. 5, 2003 at the Northern Dutchess Hospital, Rhinebeck. Mr. Brignoli was a plumber for Morey Machine in Astoria. Born on Sept. 12, 1912 in Manhattan.

He was the son of the late Virgilio and Amelia Reporte Brignoli. On Sept. 29, 1940 in Astoria, he married Ida M. Cacchioli Brignoli. In addition to his wife, he is survived by a daughter, Claudia Frigon of Mahwah, NJ; a son, Andrew Brignoli of Flemington, NJ; granddaughters, Loren and Amanda Contreras; and a grandson, Zachary Brignoli.

Calling hours were held at Peck & Peck Funeral Home, South Main Street, Pine Plains. A Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated at St. Anthony's Roman Catholic Church in Pine Plains, with Father William A. White officiating. Burial will be at the convenience of the family. Memorial donations are requested to Pine Plains Rescue Squad, P.O. Box 100, Pine Plains, NY 12567.

Louis Charles Sigloch, 86

HOUSTON, TEXAS - Louis Charles Sigloch the third, died at his residence in Houston, Texas on Tuesday, Dec. 31, 2002, at the age of 86 after a long illness.

Mr. Sigloch was born in Oakland, California, March 17, 1916, the son of Bertha Schultz and Louis Charles Sigloch, Jr. He lived much of his adult life in Rhinecliff, New York before locating to Houston, Texas in 2001.

Lou graduated from Brown University in 1940 with a Bachelor of Arts Degree. While attending the university, he was a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity and played baseball, football, and participated on the track team. After graduation, he attended the Rhode Island School of Design, School of Architecture, Providence, R.I.

Following graduation, Mr. Sigloch played professional baseball as a catcher for the Pittsburgh Pirates until enlisting in the Navy and attended the U.S. Navy Indocination in 1942 at Dartmouth College. He served as the Commanding Officer of Motor Torpedo Boat Base eight in the South Pacific and later as a Torpedo Officer in the Naval Mine Depot, Yorktown, Virginia.

After an honorable discharge in 1946, Mr. Sigloch settled in Dutchess County and began his career as an Architectural draughtsman with his father, Louis C. Sigloch, Jr. in Poughkeepsie, N.Y. His broad experience in the field of building construction and Architectural design became the framework for his rewarding 50-year career.

Mr. Sigloch was a participant in many local organizations that were of much interest to him. He played semi-professional baseball, became the first president of the Hudson Valley Little League, and was the Scoutmaster for the Boy Scouts of America, Troop 28 and Troop 40 in Rhinebeck, N.Y. He attended the Church of the Messiah, and was a member of the Rhinebeck Central School Board of Education. His participation in the Poughkeepsie Exchange Club and most recently the Memorial-Houston Exchange Club was important to him. Mr. Sigloch was inducted into the Dutchess County Oldtimers Baseball Association Hall of Fame in 1991 and continued to be an active member of this organization.

Louis Sigloch is survived by his children, son Steven and daughter-in-law Gale Sigloch, Houston, Texas, daughter Susan and son-in-law Kenneth MacHugh, Kingwood, Texas, and son, Matthew Sigloch, Fair Oaks Ranch, California, 11 grandchildren, 12 great grandchildren, and two nephews.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Dutchess County Old Timers Baseball Association, c/o Joe Poillucci, Nelson Ave. Ext., Wappengers Falls, New York 12590, Hospice Foundation, Inc. 374 Violet Avenue Poughkeepsie, N.Y. 12601-1034, or the Rhinecliff Fire Department, Rhinecliff, New York, 12574.

Family and friends will gather together for a memorial burial late spring in Rhinebeck to celebrate the life of this beloved father, grandfather and friend.

Raymond Paul Baright, 29

DURHAM, N.C. - Raymond Paul Baright, 29, of Durham, N.C., died on Sunday, Jan. 6, 2003 in Durham. A one year resident of Durham, he was born and raised in Rhinebeck, N.Y.

He was employed as an electrician for Baright Electric in Bahama, N.C. He was very active with the Boy Scouts of America, achieving "Life" status. He was a kid at heart, who enjoyed spending time with his nieces and nephew. He enjoyed sports, particularly rollerblading, biking, snow and water-skiing.

Mr. Baright was an avid Boston Red Sox Fan. He was a member of the Church of the Good Shepherd in Rhinebeck. Born on May 19, 1973 in Rhinebeck, he was the son of Herbert Baright, Sr. of Rhinebeck and Jean Timmons Webb of Staatsburg. He is survived by both his parents.

He was a graduate of Rhinebeck High School. In addition to his parents, he is survived by a brother and sister-in-law, Herbert, Jr. and Christine Baright of Bahama, N.C.; a sister and brother-in-law, Tina and Steve Coons of Rhinebeck; two nieces, Ashley Coons and Amanda Baright; a nephew, Eric Coons; and several aunts, uncles and cousins. He was predeceased by his maternal grandparents, William and Shirley Timmons and his paternal grandparents, Ruth and Raymond Baright.

Calling hours were held at Sweets Funeral Home, Inc., Route 9, Hyde Park, N.Y. A Memorial Mass was celebrated at the Church of the Good Shepherd, 3 Mulberry St., Rhinebeck.

Memorial donations may be made to the Make-A-Wish Foundation of the Hudson Valley, The Wish House, 828 South Broadway, Tarrytown, NY 10591. To send a condolence or for directions, please visit our web site at www.sweetsfuneralhome.com

David Innella, 76

RHINEBECK - David Innella, 76, passed away Monday, Jan. 6, 2003 at the Northern Dutchess Hospital following a long illness.

Mr. Innella was employed as a detective, second grade, for the New York City Police Department. In addition, he worked for 17 years for the New York State Laboratory at Stewart Air Force Base, Newburgh, and as a teacher of forensic science at Marist College and Dutchess Community College.

Mr. Innella often served as an expert witness in the area of forensic science in Dutchess, Ulster, and Rockland counties. He received a Bachelor of Science degree in Biology from Brooklyn College and later returned to Bellevue-Hunter College to become a Registered Nurse. Mr. Innella was a member of St. Christophers Roman Catholic Church, the Rock City Grange #1012, the Red Hook VFW, the Knights of Columbus, and was a volunteer in the Emergency Room at Northern Dutchess Hospital. As a member of the church, he served as an usher, a cook for bingo, and a counter for church collections. He was also a member emeritus of the Detectives Endowment Association and the Northeastern Forensic Science Association, as well as a member of the Montgomery Post #429 American Legion and the Columbia Association in New York City. He served in the United States Army during World War II. Born July 9, 1926 in Brooklyn, he was the son of Guiseppe and Giulia Autulio Innella.

Mr. Innella is survived by his wife, Louise Engel Innella; a daughter and son-in-law, Adrienne and David Mastri; a daughter, Vivienne Innella; two grandchildren, Tyler and Madison Mastri; two brothers, Robert and Joseph; and several nieces and nephews. He was predeceased by three sisters, Rose, Carmella, and Ida, and four brothers, Rudolph, Louis, Al, and Alfred.

Calling hours were held at the Dapson-Chestney Funeral Home, 51 West Market Street, Rhinebeck. Member of the Red Hook VFW conduct services. Prayers will be offered at 8 p.m. A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated at St. Christophers Church, Red Hook. Burial followed in Calvary Cemetery, Queens.

Memorial donations may be made to the Michael J. Fox Foundation or Parkinsons Research, P.O. Box 4777, New York, NY 10163. Arrangements are under the direction of the Dapson-Chestney Funeral Home, 51 West Market, Rhinebeck. www.dapsonchestney.com.

SUPPORT GROUPSSeparated and divorced support group

An ongoing group has been formed to help meet the needs of the separated and divorced men and women in the area. Widows/widowers are also welcome. We meet on the second and fourth Wednesdays of each month from 7:30 to 9 p.m. at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church, Poughkeepsie. All are welcome. For more info call Cathy at 877-6420 or Joan at (914) 475-9764.

Girl Connection

Girl Connection is a specially designed group helping to build self-esteem in adolescent and teenage girls. This program is taught by trained educators Jamie Thivierge and Lynn Segarra, and will focus on issues that influence and alter girls' lifestyles. Through creative activities, video, and guided journaling and mentoring, girls are encouraged to speak out while sharing their own individual experiences. Call (845) 831-5546 for a schedule or email at Girlcnt@aol.com.

Caregivers and families support group

A support group for caregivers and families of adults with mental illness will take place the last Wednesday of each month from 10 a.m. to noon at the Mental Health Association office, 510 Haight Ave., Poughkeepsie in Conference Room A. There is no fee. For information, call (845) 473-2500 ext. 316 or ext. 308.

Sept. 11 support group

PEOPLE, Inc. is holding a Project Liberty Support Group at 12 Raymond Avenue in Poughkeepsie on Mondays from 6-7 p.m. The group is for friends and members of PEOPLE, Inc. that are psychiatrically labeled and are feeling distressed, anxious and/or depressed by the tragedy around the Sept. 11 terrorist attacks. For more information, please call (845) 452-2728.

Man-to-Man support group

Man-to-Man support group for prostate cancer patients meets the first Thursday of the month at 6 p.m. at the Central Hudson Gas & Electric Corp. auditorium; South Rd, Poughkeepsie. Call 452-2635.

Nexus support group

Nexus support group, a support group for people who experience loneliness, meets every Thursday at 6 p.m. at Taconic Resources for Independence, Inc. 82 Washington St., Suite 214, Poughkeepsie. For more info call 452-3913.

Depressive and manic depressive support group

The depressive and manic depressive support group will meet on Tuesday evenings from 7-9 p.m. at the Arlington Reformed Church on Raymond Avenue in Poughkeepsie. This is a self-help support group for people with bi-polar disorder or clinical depression; there is no fee and no clinical leader. For info call 473-2500.

Pawling Al-Anon meetings

Family group meetings are held Friday evenings at Christ the King Lutheran Church, Pawling. Beginner meetings at 7:15 p.m., regular meetings at 8 p.m.

*Pre-Need Planning
A Growing Trend / A Good Idea*

Peck & Peck

Funeral Homes, Inc.

*Family Owned and Operated Funeral Homes
Providing Services To Meet Individual Needs*
Traditional - Memorial - Cremation

Scott D. Chwalek, Mgr.
8063 Route 22
PO Box D
Copake, NY 12516
518-329-2121
518-329-0413 (FAX)

Gerald W. Chestney / Christopher W. Chestney
Directors

Jeffery S. Proper, Mgr.
7749 Main Street
PO Box 15
Pine Plains, NY 12567
518-398-7777
518-398-5303 (FAX)

TOLL FREE 888-398-8933
E-MAIL: GWCPECKANDPECK@TACONIC.NET

COMMUNITY EVENTS CALENDAR

To have your non-profit community event listed here, send a written announcement to: Register Herald Community Calendar, PO Box 316, Millbrook, NY 12545, fax 845-677-6337, e-mail registerherald@midhudsoncentral.com.

Deadline is noon Friday. Items will run more than once only if space allows.

THIS WEEKHam dinner

The Stanford Grange Hall in Stanfordville will host a ham dinner on Sunday, Jan. 19. Servings will be held at 2 p.m. and 4 p.m. Reservations can be made by calling (845) 868-7409. The proceeds will benefit the Grange's community service network.

Christian Women's Club meeting

The Dutchess County Christian Women's Club invites any interested lady to their next "Life in the Country" Luncheon on Jan. 21 at the Holiday Inn on Rt. 9 near Interstate 84 in Fishkill, beginning at 11:30 a.m. The luncheon cost is $13, which includes free childcare. All women are welcome to attend. Reservations are required. Please call Anne at (845) 297-9646 or Shirley at (845) 297-7410.

Pine Plains Free Library

The Pine Plains Free Library is designating January as "no fines month" Bring in overdue items and the fine will be waived.

ONGOING EVENTSPine Plains Pre-School registration

The Pine Plains Pre-School still has spaces available for 3 and 4 year olds. Contact the school at (518) 398-7737 for information.

Free dump day for Stanford residents

There will be a free dump day to all residents in the Town of Stanford. Residents must have an annual resident sticker, which will entitle them to one free dump day on any Wednesday or Saturday of the year. Free passes can be picked up by showing a resident sticker at the transfer station. The details are printed on the free pass.

VA health care ID card registration and picture taking

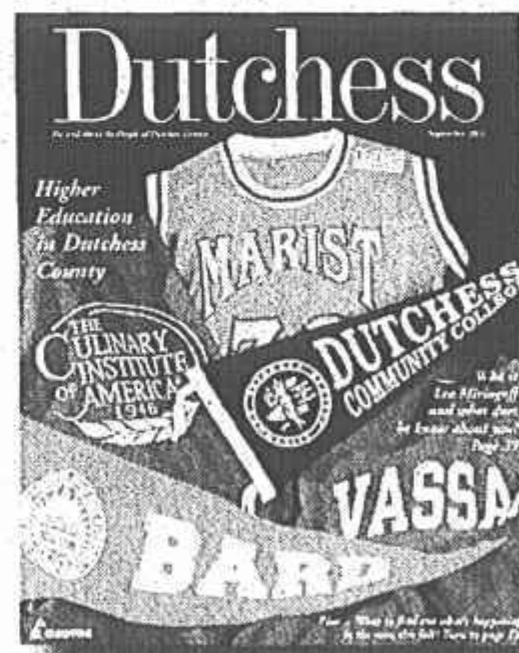

The Dutchess County Office of Veterans' Affairs and the V.A. Hudson Valley Health Care System at Castle Point will conduct registration and picture taking for the VA Health Care Identification card every second Tuesday of the month. Any questions should be directed to the Veterans' Affairs Office at (845) 486-2060 or Castle Point at (845) 831-2000, ext. 5121.

Stanford story hour

Stanford Free Library has scheduled preschool story hour for Wednesday mornings at 10 a.m. Story hour, which is run by Lea McCauley, features story reading, finger plays and crafts. Call the library at (845) 868-1341 to register your youngster. This program is made possible by the Ruth Lisman Memorial fund.

Subscribe Today!

Get The Register Herald every Thursday for a full year and receive 6 issues of Dutchess Magazine!

To Get the Best Local News & Sports,

845-677-8241
EXTENSION 130

CALL TODAY!

800-709-8818
TOLL FREE!

NAME: _____

ADDRESS: _____

CITY/STATE: _____

ZIP: _____

EMAIL: _____

CHECK: _____

VISA/MC: _____

EXP: _____

MAIL TO:

Taconic Press
P.O. Box 316,
Millbrook, NY 12545
OR CALL:
845-677-8241
Extension 130

aconic
800-709-8818

Nobody delivers your hometown news like Taconic Press!

