
Kevin Theodore Husum

Kevin Theodore Husum, 23, of Panama City, Florida passed away in a boating accident in Georgia while on a family trip.

Kevin was born in Gainesville, Florida on February 20, 1993, the youngest of three boys. His family moved to Panama City in 1996. Kevin attended St. John Catholic School and Mowat Middle School. While at Bay High School Kevin became a four-year letterman in both baseball and football and graduated with an AICE Diploma in 2011. Kevin continued his education and baseball career at Gulf Coast State College earning his Associates of Arts degree. Baseball then called Kevin to James Madison University where he excelled on the field and in the classroom. Kevin recently graduated from JMU with a Bachelor of Science in Sports Management with a Minor in Business.

Kevin, well known for his athletic abilities, will forever be remembered for his sweet nature, easygoing manner, and contagious smile. Friends describe him as "the most genuine" person ever, a "true free spirit".

Mr. Husum is preceded in death by his loving father, George Theodore Husum, his grandparents, Ellie Foley Husum, Edward J. Husum, Elizabeth Hall, and Raymond Hall.

He is survived by his mother, Barbara Husum of Panama City, brothers Daniel Husum of Charlotte , NC and Dr. Patrick Husum (Katie) of Orlando, FL, and many loving aunts, uncles and cousins.

A memorial will be held for Kevin at St. John Catholic Church on Saturday, August 13, 2016 at 11:00 a.m. Family will host friends in a CELEBRATION OF LIFE from 5 til 7:30 on Friday, August 12, 2016 at Out of the Blue (formally known as 30 Degree Blue) at Bay Point Marina. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Gulf Coast State College Foundation/Husum Family Scholarship, 5230 West Highway 98, Panama City, FL 32401.
