Stuart Raymond "Stu" Singleton Obituary

STUART "STU" RAYMOND SINGLETON
May 1, 1949 ~ January 12, 2018

Stuart Raymond Singleton, age 68, died peacefully in his sleep on the morning of Friday, January 12, 2018. Stu was born and raised in Vancouver, WA, where he lived with his parents and siblings, Donna Singleton and Bryan Singleton. An avid athlete, he played football, basketball and baseball throughout his childhood and during his time at Hudson's Bay High School.

After graduation, Stu was drafted to play baseball professionally for the Chicago White Sox. The fall after his initial summer season, Stu attended WSU in Pullman, where he met the love of his life, his late wife Lorrie Singleton.

When an injury forced Stu to hang up his glove, he and Lorrie returned to Vancouver to raise their three boys, Ty, Matt, and Casey. They enjoyed living in the PNW and adventuring with their boys, family and friends frequently. Stu enjoyed his work in the Insurance industry where he enjoyed working and golfing with people all over Vancouver. He and his family are also active members of Columbia Presbyterian Church - where many lifelong friendships began and continued.

Stu was preceded in death by his parents, John and Betty Singleton; and his beloved wife, Lorrie Singleton.

He is survived by his three sons, Ty, Matt, and Casey; daughters-in-law, Kristin and Allison; and his nine beloved and adoring grandchildren, Andre, Riley, Sam, Corey, Zachary, Julisa, Noah and Nate. He is also survived by his sister, Donna Sinclair; and his brother, Bryan Singleton.

A memorial service will be held at 3p.m. on Saturday, February 3, 2018 at Columbia Presbyterian Church, 805 Columbia Ridge Dr., Vancouver, WA 98664.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that memorial donations be made in Stu's name to the Columbia Presbyterian Church Youth Ministry fund.
