

Guy C. Hart Died Tuesday

Guy C. Hart, a 17 - year resident of this county, died Tuesday in a local hospital at the age of 59.

Services will be Thursday at 2 p.m. in Irvin M. Smith and Sons chapel, 1050 Cayuga St. Friends may call at the chapel after 7 p.m. today.

Interment will be in Felton Cemetery.

Survivors include his wife, Genevieve Hart of Felton; two sons, Larry Hart of Scotts Valley and Edward Hart of Sunnyvale; a daughter, Mrs. Carol Shanley of Felton; four brothers, Delbert Hart of Sacramento, Bill Hart of Oregon and Fed and Dwain Hart, both of Fresno.

Also surviving are a sister, Mrs. Mamie Landry of Menlo Park, and seven grandchildren.

Hart, a native of Shawnee, Okla., was a member of Mosse Lodge 545 of Santa Cruz. A former baseball player, he played 33 seasons in the California League, Texas League and Pacific Coast League.

He also played for the San Luis Obispo Blues semi - professional team and for many years with the San Jose Oldtimers.

Clipped By:

timcopeland
 Sun, May 3, 2015