Walt was a member of First Presbyterian Church in Greensboro where he taught youth Sunday School. Through the years, he was also active in the Kiwanis Club, Greensboro Colt League Baseball, and Yokefellow Prison Ministries of Greensboro. He enjoyed traveling with Beverly throughout Europe and especially the many trips to New York City. In addition to his parents, Walt was preceded in death by his brother Edwin. He is survived by his wife of 58 years Beverly B. Streuli, of the home; children, Tripp Streuli (Jan), Steve Streuli (Terri), and Melissa Streuli; grandchildren, Justin, Christopher, Seth, Taylor, and Davis.

“ I'm so very glad to have had the privilege to work with and know Walt and his fantastic children, Tripp, Melissa and Steve. I will always cherish the heartfelt memories of working with a 1st class team, and, dedicated family, that always strive for excellence in anything they set out to accomplish. Walt was a great teacher and confidant. No matter who he met, anyone could always count on him to direct them in the right direction of life. Walt will be sorely missed.

“ Beverly, Steve, Tripp and Melissa:

So sorry to learn of Walter's passing. I have some very fond memories of your family and mine doing things together. Jack has been gone now for almost 8 years and don't think that there isn't a day that I don't think about him. I know that Walter had been sick for quite sometime but it seems we are never ready to let them go. Each of you just hang on to your pleasant memories of him. Its seems that when someone we love dies, we really never get over it, we just slowly learn how to go on without them but always keep them tucked safely in our hearts. Take care and lean on each other.

Love,
Janie Bryan
