COLONIAL FUNERAL HOME, 2170 HIGHWAY 88, BRICK, NJ

Aldo Boemo age 92 of Lakewood died Thursday, March 29, 2018, at Meridian Nursing and Rehab in Brick, NJ.

Aldo was born on May 18, 1925 in Union City, NJ. He attended Emerson High School in Union City and is a member of the school's Athletic Hall of Fame. He played minor league baseball for the Red Sox organization after high school and began a career as an ornamental ironworker shortly thereafter. Aldo worked out of both Local No. 580, NY and Local No. 11, NJ for over forty years. He lived in Iselin, NJ with his family for most of his life before moving to Lakewood, NJ in 1995. Aldo coached baseball in the Iselin Athletic Association for many years and loved being around the kids. He was a kind and loving husband, father, and grandfather.

Aldo is pre-deceased by his wife Mary in 2014. Surviving are three sons: Michael and his wife Nancy of Little York, NJ, Robert and his wife Krissy of Weston, FL, and David and his wife Patricia of Mahwah, NJ. He is also survived by three grandchildren: Michael, Christopher and Kyle, and his sister in law Violet Boemo of Toms River, NJ.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be offered on Tuesday April 3rd at 11:00am in the Visitation R.C. Church in Brick. Viewing hours will also be Tuesday April 3rd from 9:00am to 10:30am at Colonial Funeral Home, 2170 Highway 88 in Brick. Cremation will be private.
