

Charles H. Page

March 28, 1936 - April 2, 2015

Charles Herbert Page was born March 28, 1936 to Forrest and Mary Rose Page in Hillsdale, Oklahoma. He graduated from Capitol Hill High School in 1954. He married Helga on July 28, 1976. He was saved and baptized in 1978 at South Lindsey Baptist Church, and died on Thursday, April 2, 2015 in Oklahoma City. Chuck is preceded in death by his parents, brothers Don and Robert and two sisters, Cloris and Gloria. He is survived by his wife, Helga Page, his children, Chuck II and wife Cheryl of Newcastle, and Randy and wife Becky of Oklahoma City; his grandchildren, Crystal Hillis and David, Charla Hodges and Jeremy, Steven Page and Tina, and Daxton Page; 9 great grandchildren, one sister-in-law, many nieces and nephews, and many friends. Chuck worked for over 30 years for Rainbo Bread Company before he retired, but he is perhaps best known as an athlete. He was named All City, All Conference, All State, All American, and All Decade, in Baseball, Football, and Basketball. He suffered only one loss in his entire High School pitching career. He played football at Central State, and professional baseball for seven years before injury. He was an All American fastpitch softball player and Hall of Fame fastpitch player. He won the Jim Thorpe Award in 1975, an award that called him "one of the All-Time Greats of Oklahoma." In 1999, Chuck was selected for Oklahoma's All-Century High School Baseball Team. In 2002, the Daily Oklahoman chose Chuck as one of the top ten all-around star athletes in Oklahoma History. The newspapers and record books considered him to be the greatest athlete to come out of Capitol Hill High School. Though he was a gifted athlete, Chuck spent the majority of his life most thankful for God's gift of grace. To those who knew him, he was a born-again believer, a strong Christian man who was outspoken in his beliefs and shared the gospel freely. He firmly believed that if God could save a man like him, then He could save anyone. And no athletic achievement or former glory days would outshine the tears standing in a former teammate's eyes as he said, "Chuck led me to the Lord." Service is Monday, April 6th at 10:00am, Resthaven Funeral Home, 500 Southwest 104th Street, Oklahoma City.

Events

APR 4 Visitation 10:00AM - 08:00PM

Resthaven Funeral Home
500 SW 104th, Oklahoma City, OK, US, 73139
(405) 691-1661

APR 6 Service 10:00AM

Resthaven Funeral Home
500 SW 104th, Oklahoma City, OK, US, 73139
(405) 691-1661

Comments

“ Dear Chuck and Randy, I'm so very sorry about the passing of your father. He was a gifted and remarkable man. I know he passed those qualities on to his sons. Randy, I know you better, and you also are remarkable. My prayers are with you and your families. May God grant you peace and comfort through the love of Christ. Sincerely, Steve Fears

Steven Fears - April 06 at 04:32 PM

“ In the 1980's, I played on a world class softball team with Chuck II and Randy. We were called the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. We were coached by Chuck Sr. Though we won over 150 games, and only lost a few, the best thing I remember was the prayers before and after the games, led by Chuck. He also led in devotionals before the games. Quite inspirational and life-changing! God bless, Darrell Aebischer

Darrell Aebischer - April 05 at 07:34 AM

“ Harold D Cook lit a candle in memory of Charles H. Page

Harold D Cook - April 04 at 01:06 PM

“ Blooming Garden Basket was purchased for the family of Charles H. Page.

April 04 at 10:45 AM