
DONALD CAMPEN(1928 - 2016)

Donald A. Campen 33 years with Prudential Donald A. Campen of Ormond Beach, Fla., passed away peacefully on June 21, 2016, with his family by his side. Donald was born on March 3, 1928, and raised in Kearny, N.J., where he met the love of his life, Alice McQuilken. After a brief stint as a professional baseball player, he entered the Army and served as a parachutist in the 187th Infantry. Donald graduated from Montclair State University and shortly thereafter began a 33-year career with The Prudential Insurance Company of America. Donald and Alice eventually moved to Bloomfield, N.J., where they raised their sons, Bobby and David. He then moved on to Ormond Beach, where he resided for the past 18 years and where he had a great many cherished friendships. Donald always enjoyed life, even when faced with challenges and his wonderful attitude and easy smile made life a little better for all those who knew him.

Published in Star-Ledger from July 1 to July 3, 2016
