

THE PASS

Mr. Thompson, formerly of Ross, also was a former examining board member and business manager of Local 5. He was a sergeant in the Army in the 39th Infantry during World War II. He served under Gen. George S. Patton in North Africa and Sicily. He received a Purple Heart for wounds he received in Sicily. He was a member of North Hills Lodge No. 718 F&AM, Ancient & Accepted Scottish Rite and Syria Temple and was a 32nd Degree Mason.

Mr. Thompson belonged to VFW Post 278 in Bloomfield and Highland Country Club in West View.

He is survived by two sisters, Virginia Thomas of Hampton, and Ruth Roach of Ross.

Visitation will be held from 7 to 9 tonight and 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m. tomorrow in the H.P. Brandt Funeral Home Inc., 1932 Perry Highway, Ross, where services will be held at 11 a.m. Wednesday. Burial will be in Allegheny County Memorial Park, McCandless.

Mary Flecken Guyton

Mary Catherine "Kitty" Flecken Guyton, 64, a well known golfer and member of the Valleybrook Country Club in Canonsburg, Washington County, died of cancer yesterday in St. Clair Memorial Hospital, Mt. Lebanon.

Mrs. Guyton of Canonsburg was a member of St. Patrick Roman Catholic Church in Canonsburg and an active member of the Valleybrook Ladies Golf Association. She worked with her son, P. Gregory of Canonsburg, at Guyton's Food Warehouse in Canonsburg.

She is survived by her husband, Ralph J.; three daughters, Dianne M. Sale, Rene Hindock and Nancy Sonson, all of Washington, Pa.; four other sons, Ralph J. Jr. of Eighty Four, Washington County, Robert P. of Bakersfield, Calif., Patrick J. of Canonsburg, and Joseph H. of Rowley, Mass.; a brother, Matthew "Curly" Flecken of Wampum, Lawrence County; and 24 grandchildren.

There will be no viewing. A memorial mass will be offered at 11 a.m. Wednesday in St. Patrick Church, 317 W. Pike, Canonsburg. Burial will be private.

Sister M. Doychak

Sister M. Jolitta Doychak, 86, a member of the Vincentian Sisters of Charity, died Saturday of congestive heart failure in North Hills Passavant Hospital, McCandless.

Sister Doychak lived in the Vincentian Sisters of Charity Motherhouse in McCandless, where she worked as a laundress. She spent most of the 34 years of her religious life doing domestic work in Vincentian Sisters of Charity convents.

She also was a nurse's aide and laundress at Regency Hall Nursing Home in McCandless, Vincentian Home Nursing Home in McCandless and Villa dell'Artelle Nursing Home in Stanton Heights.

Visitation will be held until 9 p.m. today at the Motherhouse Chapel, 8200 McKnight Road, McCandless, where a mass of Christian burial will be held at 3:45 p.m. tomorrow. Burial will be in Vincentian Sisters of Charity Cemetery, McCandless.

Joseph Petraglia

Joseph Petraglia, a boilermaker and former minor league baseball player, died of a heart attack Friday in Mercy Hospital.

Mr. Petraglia, 60, of Mount Washington, was a member of Boilermakers Local 154.

In the 1950s he played in the Pittsburgh Pirates farm system. He also played and managed the sandlot baseball teams in Bellevue and Dormont for the Greater Pittsburgh Baseball League. He also was a basketball referee and baseball umpire for the Western Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic League.

He is survived by two brothers Oscar of Deerfield, Pa., and John of Mount Washington, and a sister Josephine Palmer of Mount Washington.

Friends will be received from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m. today and tomorrow at the Brusco-Falvo Funeral Home, 214 Virginia Ave., Mount Washington. A mass of Christian burial will be held at 1 p.m. Wednesday in St. Mary of the Mount Roman Catholic Church, 403 Grandview Ave., Mount Washington. Burial will be in Calvary Cemetery.

Jeffery R. Dwyer

Jeffery R. Dwyer, a former Richland resident, died April 1 as a result of a fall during a hiking accident in Zion National Park in Utah.

Mr. Dwyer, 28, who graduated from Richland High School in 1979 moved from the area 10 years ago. He was a designer for Backwood Cabin Inc. in Sandpoint, Idaho.

He is survived by his mother Elmore Romeo of Vancouver, Canada; his father, William of Richland; two brothers, David of Richland and Douglas of Brunswick, Maine; and a sister, Janet Anderson of Richland.

Friends will be received from 5 to 8 p.m. tomorrow at the home of William Dwyer, 10500 Old Babcock Blvd.

Katharine Jones

Katharine White Holdship Jones, 85, who was affiliated with Allegheny General Hospital for 67 years, died of a stroke yesterday in her Edgeworth home.

Mrs. Jones was the widow of B.F. Jones III, former vice president of Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp.

She became affiliated with the North Side hospital when she joined its auxiliary in 1918. She opened its first gift shop in 1930.

Mrs. Jones was a former member of the board of directors of the Pittsburgh History and Landmarks Foundation, honorary trustee of Valley Care Association and trustee of Women's Board of the Pittsburgh Symphony Society.

She belonged to the Presbyterian Church of Sewickley.

Mrs. Jones was a past member of the Garden Club of Allegheny County, Allegheny Country Club, Pittsburgh Golf Club, Corporation of South Side Hospital and Women's Board of Carnegie Institute.

She was a life member of Allegheny General Hospital.

Mrs. Jones is survived by two sons, Frederick H. of Boston and Peter D. of New York City; two sisters, Margaret M. and Caroline P. Holdship, both of Osborne, 10 grandchildren; and one great-grandchild.

A memorial service will be held at 11 a.m. in the Presbyterian Church of Sewickley, Beaver and Grant streets, Sewickley, Tuesday. A private burial will be in Sewickley Cemetery.

Contributions can be made to Valley Care Nursing Home, Merriam Road, Sewickley, Pa., 15143.

Dr. David S. Huber

Dr. David S. Huber, 64, who was the staff doctor for the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1965 until last year, died of cancer yesterday at Allegheny General Hospital.

Clipped By:

timcopeland

Tue, Feb 9, 2016