

CAMPBELL FUNERAL TO BE IN FRANKLIN

Hammond Coach, Killed in Crash, Will Be Buried in Holy Cross Here.

[Special to The Indianapolis Star.]

FRANKLIN, Ind., March 28.—Funeral services for William E. (Spud) Campbell, Hammond High School basketball coach who was killed in an automobile accident near Wheeler last night, will be held here at 9:30 o'clock Monday morning in St. Rose of Lima Catholic Church. Burial will be at 11 o'clock in Holy Cross cemetery, Indianapolis.

Mr. Campbell, en route to the state basketball tournament in Indianapolis, was killed instantly when his automobile collided with a truck-trailer. The body was removed to a Valparaiso mortuary and brought today to an Indianapolis mortuary.

Tim Campbell, former coach at Arsenal Technical High School, Indianapolis, flew to Indianapolis today from Deland, Fla., to make funeral arrangements for his brother. He and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Campbell of Franklin, had been spending the winter in Deland.

Father Seriously Ill.

The elder Mr. Campbell is seriously ill and on Wednesday his two daughters, Miss Mame Campbell, a teacher in Alva Neal High School here, and Miss Margaret Campbell, a clerk in the Franklin post office, were called to Deland to be at his bedside.

The father has not been notified of his son's death. It is understood that none of the survivors except Tim Campbell will return for the funeral.

Spud Campbell was born and reared here and was graduated from Franklin College. He played professional baseball several years. Tim Campbell is on a leave of absence from Technical because of injuries he suffered in an automobile accident a year ago.

Clipped By:

jackmo77
Mon, May 2, 2016