

SERVICES CONDUCTED FOR LEO V. KANE, 59

HARTFORD, Aug. 13—(AP) Services took place today for Leo V. (Brick) Kane, 59, a former professional baseball player. Kane, outfielder and third baseman for the Hartford Senators of the old Eastern League in the early 20's, died Thursday in a private hospital. Cause of death was not given.

In addition to playing for Hartford, Kane had trials with the Philadelphia Phillies and the New York Giants in the National League. Later he returned to the Eastern League playing with Waterbury and Bridgeport before he retired.

Leaving baseball, Kane became steward at the Hartford Lodge of Elks and the Fraternal Order of Eagles, where he was a member for 26 years.

He is survived by his wife, a son, five daughters, two sisters and three brothers.

Clipped By:

timcopeland

Sun, May 10, 2015