
Lawrence Curtice "Larry" Mann(1927 - 2017)

Lawrence 'Larry' Curtice Mann

Oct. 16, 1927 - June 8, 2017

Larry Mann was born in Ceres, Calif., Oct. 16, 1927 to Christopher Ezekiel and Anna Laurie Curtice. He passed away the evening of June 8, 2017; he was 89.

Larry grew up on a farm and loved to play baseball. He played for Sacramento State earning a degree in Chemistry in 1950. He played professionally in Amarillo, Boise, Salem and Stockton, Calif. He managed Little League in Stockton for 10 years.

Larry married his first wife, Ruth Kizer, in 1949. They had four children, Nicolette Allan of Beaverton; Ericka Baltzer of Clinton Township, Mich.; Chris Mann of Corvallis, and Kimberley Dunkle of Castor, Alberta who survive him.

Larry wed Carol Nathan in 1977, later relocating to Milwaukie. He worked in real estate, owned laundromats, and officiated baseball, softball, and basketball. He received recognition from the Amateur Softball Association for 50 years of umpiring. He enjoyed his urban garden and traveling.

Larry is survived by his wife, Carol; four children; six grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; his brother, John Mann of Lodi, Calif.; and several nieces and nephews.

A celebration of life is planned for 11 a.m., June 17, at Glenfair Church, where he and Carol are members, 50 N.E. 143rd Ave., Portland, OR 97230. Lunch to follow. Per Larry's request, in lieu of flowers, kindly send donations to Glenfair Church.
