Brock Pemberton

(November 05, 1953 - February 17, 2016)

Brock Pemberton age 62, passed away Wednesday, February 17, 2016.

Brock was born in Tulsa, OK in 1953 to Carol and Cliff Pemberton.

His family moved to southern California in 1968 where it was the wildest of times and the best of times (with burning leaves). Brock graduated from Marine High School in 1972. At that time he earned co-player of the year in California for baseball and was drafted with the New York Mets in the 6th round. He played in the minor leagues from 1972-1974 during his Triple AAA season he won the Golden Glove award. He played 1 year in the Majors and then became player/coach for the Mecon Georgia Peaches Triple AAA Club. Brock found his passion in New Mexico working as a Professional Landscaping and Commercial Irrigation Supervisor at State Parks, State and Federal Indian Reservations and Colleges.

Brock was a free spirit. He loved the outdoors, fishing, hunting and gardening. He was also a fabulous baker and cook. He was married for 22 years and moved to Ardmore, OK in June of 2011.

Brock is preceded in death by his parents, Cliff and Carol Pemberton.

Brock is survived by 1 brother, 2 sisters, brother and sister in laws, nieces, nephews and cousins.
