DUBBS

Marvin Keith

Marvin Keith Dubbs died of cancer on February 26, 2015. He was born in Toledo, OH on March 3, 1922, to Donald R. and Hazel Dubbs. He graduated from Clay High School, where he was an all-star athlete and was inducted into the first class of the Clay High School Athletics Hall of Fame. He lettered in football at Marquette University, baseball at the University of Toledo, and eventually played baseball in the New York Yankee Farm System. One of the highlights of his sports career was when he and his son, Marty, were honored as the first father-son members of the Clay High School Sports Hall of Fame.

Marv served in the Navy during WWII on the USS Craven Navel Destroyer in their fire control division. After the war, he graduated from the University of Toledo with a degree in electrical engineering. He worked as Sun Oil for 35 years, retiring as manager of Human Resources. Upon retirement from Sun Oil, he obtained his real estate license and sold residential housing for 20 years for DiSalle Real Estate and Welles Bowen Realty.

For ten years during retirement he enjoyed playing keyboard with a trio, The Melody Masters, bringing smiles to the residents of several nursing homes. He also played saxophone with the Maumee Community Band.

Marv was an active, beloved member of the First Presbyterian Church of Waterville, where he served as elder, treasurer, and most recently, member of the Capital Campaign Committee.

Marv is survived by his loving wife and best friend, Mary (Wray) Dubbs; sons, Marty (Amy) Dubbs, Kevin (Annette) Wray, Terence (Kathy) Wray, Thomas (Elizabeth) Wray, Kelly (Angela) Wray; daughters, Sue (Dubbs) Hancock, Alison (Wray) Deiners, and Melanie Wray; 16 grandchildren, 3 great-grandchildren, and sister, Lana Gross. He was preceded in death by his son, Kirk Wray and siblings, Roger Dubbs, Phyllis Buehler, and Neil Dubbs.

Visitation will be Friday, March 6, 2015, from 4-8 p.m. at Peinert-Dunn Funeral Home, 7220 Dutch Rd., Waterville, OH. Funeral Services will be Saturday, March 7, 2015, 11 a.m. at First Presbyterian Church, 611 Farnsworth Rd., Waterville, OH. Memorial contributions can be given to the church.
