

SELECTMAN DIES

LITCHFIELD, April 1. — Services for Selectman Martin J. Moraghan, 74, public official here 40 years, who died yesterday in his home, will be conducted tomorrow in St. Anthony's church.

Death was attributed to cancer.

He was on the Litchfield Borough board 35 years serving as warden 25 years until his retirement in April 1953. He was a member of the Board of Education 35 years and was chairman more than a decade. He was elected selectman in 1955 and re-elected in 1957, holding that post until his death.

In 1910 he was a professional baseball player with the Waterbury team of the old Connecticut State league.

He is survived by his wife, Katherine, and three sons.

Clipped By:

timcopeland

Thu, May 14, 2015