

---

Glenn Hoffinger

Hoffinger, Glenn 51 July 01, 1964 Mar. 29, 2016 Glenn passed away unexpectedly March 29, 2016, at the age of 51 as a result of a pulmonary embolism. Confident, easy-going and kind, he dedicated his life to the things he loved most: family, friends, sports and cars. Glenn was born in Chicago and raised in Lake Oswego. A gifted athlete, Glenn played baseball and soccer at the University of Portland. He was drafted by the Oakland As as a first baseman. He continued his love of sports as a youth coach and mentor for all ages throughout his community. Glenn had a passion for cars, which he built into a successful business, Hofco Auto Consultants. Glenn's number one passion in life was his family. His wife of 21 years, Shannon Quimby, and 14-year-old son, Chase Hoffinger were his everything. Glenn is survived by his wife; son; mother, Nona Hoffinger of Lake Oswego; father, Jerry Hoffinger of Bend; and many extended family members. A celebration of Glenn's life will be held at 11 a.m. Sunday, May 15, 2016, at the University of Portland, Bauccio Commons. In lieu of flowers, please consider a contribution to: www.gofundme.com/GlennHoffinger

Published in The Oregonian from Apr. 19 to Apr. 24, 2016

---