

'Red' Hart, Ex-Agathon Star, Dies

William F. (Red) Hart, one of the pitching stars of the old Massillon Agathons, died Sunday morning in Akron city hospital. He was 68 years old and had been ill 10 weeks.

Mr. Hart, prominent in both professional and independent baseball circles for many years, came to Massillon when the Agathons were organized in 1918 with the late Dr. George Textor as manager.

THE CLUB for a number of years was sponsored by the old Central Steel Co. and played its home games at the Agathon park in 1st st NW.

The Agathons became known as one of the strongest independent baseball teams in the country during an era when there were many teams sponsored by manufacturing concerns.

Mr. Hart and his family lived in Massillon during the years he was a pitcher for the Agathons and Mr. Hart was one of the most popular members of the team. Although he did not possess great speed, Mr. Hart became one of the mainstays of the Agathons pitching staff because of his fine control.

After completing his baseball career here, Mr. Hart moved to Akron.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Lucille M. Hart; two daughters, Mrs. Jean Rhoades of Akron and Mrs. Lois Pollock of Edwardsville, Pa.; a sister, Mrs. A. J. Riess of Kalamazoo, Mich.; one brother, Nick Hart of Pittsburgh, and five grandchildren.

The funeral will be held Wednesday at 3 p. m. at the Longfellow funeral home, 233 E. Market st., Akron. Interment will be made in Greenlawn Memorial park, Akron.

Friends may call at the funeral home Tuesday after 6 p. m.

Stir a half cup of grated cheddar cheese into a package of pie crust mix. Use as pastry for green apple pie.

Veteran's Day At Longfellow

A Veterans Day program was held in the Longfellow auditorium this morning at 8:45 a. m. for the junior high school students. Miss Tressel, Longfellow music supervisor, and Mrs. Katherine Steiert's 8th grade home room, planned the assembly. The program was opened by Sue Burton, who read Psalm 156, and led the group in the Lord's Prayer.

The ninth grade choir and an octette, composed of Barbara Gard, Connie Moore, Linda Ickes, Judy Murphy, Doug Harmelink, Jim McFarland, Manfred Doering, and Bill Finerock sang, "O God Our Help in Ages Past."

James Class led the students in the salute to the flag, and in singing the first verse of "The Star Spangled Banner," accompanied by the junior high school band, under the direction of Max Reed. The ninth grade choir sang the third verse of our national anthem.

The ninth grade choir, under the direction of Miss Tressel, sang "Stouthearted Men" and "Hymn For The Nations." Soloists for "Stouthearted Men" were Don Helms, George Voegelings, and Jim Klekner. Linnea Rudder was the accompanist for "Hymn For The Nations." "What Is Armistice Day?" written by Carol Morton and Jerry Reinhold, was read by Brooke Harlan.

The Longfellow junior high school band, under the direction of Max Reed, played, "The American Patrol March."

A reading about the tomb of the unknown soldier, entitled "Unknown," by Bruce Barton, was presented. Gwen Shaffer was narrator, the three soldier were portrayed by Don Roseman, Matthew Hunt, and James Young, and the background music was played by Patricia Miglich.

The eighth grade glee club, the Mello-Tones, sang "I Like It Here," and "The Homeland."

Mary Miglich was their accompanist, and Miss Tressel, their director.

While two slides of Flanders Field were projected on the screen, Carol Phillips recited the poem, "In Flanders Fields," by John McCrae.

John Rowe, who served as announcer, asked the assemblage to stand for one minute in silent tribute to our war dead, while the band played Taps. Tom Girdler was the backstage assistant.

The elementary grades assembled Friday afternoon for a Veterans Day program with Mrs. Anna Klein's fifth grade in charge. Cathy Pitts gave the Bible reading. Dick Longworth led the flag salute. The group sang, "The Army Air Corps," "The Marine Hymn" and "The Caissons Go Rolling Along." Mrs. Fred Wilson was the accompanist. Janet Fairless read "The Unknown Soldier." The story of the unknown soldier was narrated and portrayed in slides by Mrs. Klein.
