Bobby, even though you will have them at your disposal where you're going, you won't need any Angels in the Outfield. You never let the ball get out of the infield! Have a safe journey. You're the best! Bob Stringini

I'm so sorry to hear about Bob's passing. He was such a great neighbor - always eager to lend a hand and full of funny stories to tell (especially when it came to living in a house full of women and having to compete for the bathroom). I was just talking about him the other day, replaying how we had to dig a ditch out to the storm sewer right after we bought the house in '89. There we were, knee deep in mud and dirt, and this big guy wanders across the street and just picks up a shovel and starts working and talking. I'll never forget that. - Dan Scheibenreif

Bob Graczyk was in the big leagues for a lot more than throwing a baseball; he was a consummate husband, father and friend. Bob was a true character; funny, kind, a straight shooter, and as authentic as they come. He will be remembered with great admiration. May he join his lovely bride Deb and rest in peace. Love to the girls. -Jeff Sampson
