

In Memory of
Leo Perry Sainati

May 19, 1916 - February 21, 2016

Just short of his 100th birthday, Leo Perry Sainati, 99, of Riverside, who was preceded in death by his beloved wife of 64 years, Flora Ann Sainati (Belluomini) passed peacefully in his home, on Feb 21, 2016. Fond father of Leonard and Perry (Jeanne), loving Nonno to Cristina and Nicholas (Gabrielle) and a mentor to many. Preceded in death by siblings, Nello, Irene (Guintoli), Daniel, Jerry and Bruno. He was an MVP baseball pitcher for the Fighting Illini and was signed by the Chicago White Sox. After serving in the U.S. Navy, he joined his brothers in opening Precision Machine Shop in Cicero, which has evolved into Belden Universal Inc. and Belden Machine Corp. The interment will be private and a memorial service will be held on his 100th Birthday in May. Donations can be made to The Lurie Children's Hospital of Chicago <https://www.luriechildrens.org>. Arrangements entrusted to Woodlawn Funeral Home, Forest Park. Info (708) 442-8500 or www.woodlawnchicago.com.

Services and Interment Private

Driving Directions