
Howard Pool

Howard Mason Mace Pool Howard Mason Mace Pool was born April 30, 1930, in Circleville, Kansas, to John W. Pool and Ethie Hill Pool and, after a long illness, died March 15, 2017, at his care home in Phoenix, Ariz. He graduated Topeka High, Washburn University and a Classified Military course at MIT.

Howard was witty, fun-loving and a gifted athlete. He played professional baseball in the Cardinal franchise, was a pilot in the U.S. Air Force, was employed by Systems Development Corp. at various locations and retired from Hughes Aircraft in California. He was preceded in death by his parents, niece Sue Ellen Egner, and nephew John Chris Moore. He leaves his wife of 54 years, Gloria G. Torres Pool, son Howard M. Pool II (Kelly), daughters Teresa A. Pool, Mysti D. Herrick (Mike), grandchildren Madison, Peyton, Paisley, Aaron, Amber, sisters Doris J. Edwards, June A. Moore, Rhoda J. Ward. Also nieces, nephews and cousins. He will be missed and loved forever. Howard Pool

Funeral HomeNational Cremation Society Phoenix

4460 East Thomas Road Phoenix, AZ 85018

(800) 721-1914

Published in Topeka Capital-Journal on Mar. 26, 2017
