“ I was saddened to hear of George's passing. My condolences go out to all his sons and their families as well as the rest of George's family. I first met George back in the late sixties during my early years working at Quality Press. He was one of the nicest men in our business, I had ever had the pleasure of meeting. My old boss, Ed Richardson and I use to play ping pong with George and even though his legs were not working that well. he still managed to beat us most of the time. The world has lost a very special person. Again, I want to express my deepest sympathies to all his family.
