

HONIG'S BODY IS CLAIMED BY WIFE

The body of Johnny Honig, one of the stars of the Chester team of 1921 when the aggregation was cleaning up for the best of semi-pro clubs in this section, has been claimed by his wife and will be shipped to Suffolk, Va., some time today. Honig died in the Chester Hospital early this week.

The body has been at the morgue since Johnny's death. The wife was traced through some papers found in Honig's clothing. She arranged to have the body shipped south today.
