Saturday, April 30, 2016

Gary Zunino, a former standout baseball player for Redwood High, died recently at the age of 58.

Zunino played for legendary Redwood coach Al Endriss from 1974-76 where he was an all-MCAL player and went on to star at Cuesta Junior College and then hit better than .300 for Cal. He and his brother Greg played on the same Golden Bears' team. Zunino was drafted as a catcher in the St. Louis Cardinals farm system where he played for a few years. He also led a Marin softball team to the national title and also starred on a semi-pro baseball team.
