C.T. "Cedar" Davis, age 101, of Morristown, passed away Tuesday, August 2, 2016 at Life Care of Morristown. He was a member of First Baptist Church of Morristown. Cedar was an original founding member of Alpha-Talbot Utilities and served on the Board of Directors since its establishment. He had a life-long interest in sports, especially baseball. He played baseball as a young man with the Shelbyville, North Carolina Cardinals and a shoulder injury prevented him from going to the major leagues. He was preceded in death by his wife, Marie Davis; parents, James Madison "Mack" and Fannie Davis; daughter, Dianne Sluder; granddaughter, Lara Sluder Woodard; and eight brothers and sisters. He is survived by his son, James (Joy) Davis; grandchildren, Amy Davis Francis (Tim), Beth Davis Moore (Emmett), and Scott Sluder (Kathy); great-grandchildren, Matthew Jones, Michael (Sarah) Jones, Isaac Francis, Joy Ann Francis, Robert Moore, James Moore, and Sam Sluder; great-great grandchildren, Zoe Jones and Avalon Jones; and special friend, Anita Wilder. The family will receive friends from 5 – 7 p.m. Friday, August 5 at Westside Chapel Funeral Home. Funeral services will follow at 7 p.m. at the funeral home with Rev. Danny Georges officiating. Family and friends will meet at 10 a.m. Saturday, August 6 at Sunderland Cemetery for graveside services. Arrangements by Westside Chapel Funeral Home in Morristown.
