BIOGRAPHY

John "Babe" A. Testone, 87 of Liverpool passed away unexpectedly on Saturday at St. Joseph's Hospital Health Center. He was born in Syracuse a son of the late Vito and Adeline (Rossomondo) Testone where he was raised and educated graduating from Assumption High School. Right out of high school at the age of 17, he signed his first professional baseball contract and played in the minor leagues for 5 years with the Baltimore Orioles and New York Yankees systems. Babe continued his education being a member of the first graduating class in 1951 from Lemoyne College receiving his Bachelor's Degree in Accounting. He was employed as a C.P.A. and partner with Deloitte, Haskins & Sells for many years in Syracuse. Concurrently, he taught Accounting at Lemoyne College. Babe loved being around baseball and was named head baseball coach at CBA in 1959, coaching for several seasons.

His memberships included the A .I.C.P.A., NYSCPA Society, and the Liverpool School Board. He also enjoyed his long time membership at Lakeshore Yacht & Country Club. He was an active parishioner and founding trustee of Christ the King Church in Bayberry. Babe had resided in Liverpool since 1962. He is predeceased by his sister, Pauline Goglia, three uncles; Anthony, Louis and Cosimo, and three aunts; Lena DiFlorio, Rose Saracene, and Lucretia Leponto.

Surviving to cherish his memory is his wife of 55 years, Eileen (Pauls) Testone of Liverpool, daughter, Anne-Marie (James Jeffrey) Spainhower of Jefferson City, MO, granddaughter, Theckla Elisabeth Spainhower and many nieces, nephews and cousins.
