
Paul Charles Datti

Paul Charles Datti, 90, of Scranton, passed away peacefully Monday evening in the Gino J. Merli Veterans Center of Scranton.

Born in Scranton, son of the late Angelo and Nancy Terreri Datti, he was educated in Scranton schools and was a graduate of Scranton Central High School. He served in active combat in the Army during World War II. He played minor league baseball and was a championship bowler.

Paul's family would like to send out a special thank you to the Gino J. Merli Veterans Center for taking such wonderful care of Paul in his final years.

Surviving are a sister, Carol Booth, Scranton; former wife, Theresa Manglaviti Wickizer, Moosic; a daughter, Lynda, Dunmore; a son, Paul Jr., Long Pond; a granddaughter, Jessica; Moscow; a grandson, Joseph, Dunmore; granddaughter, Linsay, Dunmore; great-grandchildren, Jacob, Greyson and Emilia, Moscow; nieces, nephews, great-nieces and great-nephews.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be offered Saturday at 10 a.m. in Immaculate Conception Church, Taylor Avenue and Gibson Street, Scranton, followed by burial in Cathedral Cemetery, West Scranton.

Friends may call Friday, 5 to 8 p.m., at the Carl J. Savino Jr. Funeral Home, 157. S. Main Ave., Scranton. In lieu of flowers or gifts, memorial contributions may be made to AseraCare Hospice, 1212 S. Abington Road, Clarks Summit, PA 18411. Those attending the funeral Mass Saturday are asked to go directly to Immaculate Conception Church.

Funeral Home

Carl J Savino Funeral Home

157 S Main Ave Scranton, PA 18504
(570) 342-0630

Published in Scranton Times on Aug. 24, 2016
