Palmieri, Ernest C. of Port Jefferson, passed away on February 9, 2017.

Beloved Husband of Virginia, Loving Father of Valerie, Denise, Sharon and Glenn

Devoted Grandfather of Richard, Trevor, Teana, Brittany and Vincent

Caring Brother to Patricia and Robert

Ernest, was born on October 20, 1934, the eldest child of Mildred and Patsy Palmieri. He grew up in Elmhurst, Queens, was a choir boy and graduated from Grover Cleveland H.S.

He was recruited to pitch for the AAA Minor League of the St. Louis Cardinals; he favored the knuckleball but had a diverse pitching arsenal. He played 1953-1959 when an injury cut short his career.

He then worked for Metropolitan Life Insurance and bought an agency in E. Setauket, Payne and Palmieri. He acquired other agencies under the name Palmieri Co. Movies, music and stamp collecting were life-long passions. Upon retirement, he enjoyed time with friends, family, travel and golf. His father was a PGA member.
