1926 - 2018 ▾ Obituary ▸ Condolences ▸ Flowers

CAMERON REX JURY Cameron Rex Jury, 91, Gladstone, MO, passed away February 26, 2018, at NKC Hospice House. Cameron was born in Alpena, MI, on Nov. 25, 1926 to parents of Rex and Mabel (Swallow) Jury. He married Dolores Mischley of Alpena, MI, on Nov. 6, 1948, and they were married for 60 years before her death on May 3, 2009. Cameron was drafted into the military along with several of his friends a day before high school graduation in 1945 to serve in World War II. When he returned from his military service he was drafted by the Boston Red Sox minor league team. After his baseball career, he returned to Alpena and began working for Besser Company. In 1961, he accepted a promotion from Besser Company and moved to Kansas City, MO, and retired after working 40 years for the Besser Company. Cam continued throughout his life involved with his favorite sport - baseball. He played in several baseball leagues with his friends, and coached both of his sons while they pursued their baseball interest. Also, he and his wife enjoyed entertaining family and friends on the weekends and holidays. Surviving are his three children, Cameron Lee Jury of Gladstone, Margaret Ann Wise (Curt) of Gladstone, and Paul Brian Jury (Jennifer) of Liberty. He is also survived by 13 grandchildren and 20 great grandchildren. His final resting place will be next to his wife at the Resurrection Cemetery. The visitation will be 6-8 p.m. Friday evening, March 2, at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, 1130 Clayview Dr., Liberty, MO, and the graveside service will be at 10 a.m. March 3 at the Resurrection Cemetery for the immediate family. Donations may be given to the American Heart Association, and flowers should be delivered to 820 Cosby, Liberty, MO 64068.
