OBITUARIES FROM THE FAMILY

Pam Milton

February 6, 2018

Deacon Fontana was truly a disciple of Christ.

He faithfully came to

Dauphin Way Assisted Living

to lead several of the ladies

there in prayer and Bible study every week. He will be sorely missed.

John Hall

January 21, 2018

*Your buddies from the 1948
Independence, Kansas Yankees never forgot you. On behalf of the surviving members of that team in my capacity as KOM league historian I pass along to the family our profound condolences. John G. Hall KOM league historian.*

Kathryn Abbruzzese

January 21, 2018

You are loved and will be missed Uncle Charles. He was always giving me kind words of encouragement throughout the

January 17, 2018

*May God's loving kindness comfort you and help you through this very sad time
Psalms 29:11*

Kenneth Hart

January 17, 2018

*Sorry to learn of Mr.
Fontana's passing. I thought highly of him in all our dealings and always enjoyed being around him when he would come to Monroe to "check" on the house. We have communicated for many years.*

I will miss him.

V. P. Dalrymple

January 17, 2018

Deep condolences to all of you on the loss of my long time friend.
