“ Coach, Beverly and Family, I can't even imagine the journey that you are on now. My heart is heavy for you. I never got to know Ryan, but all the postings I have read, and my son Les has memories of, tells me he was so well liked and thought of and a great athlete and friend to so many. I know that the normal life you know has now changed and there is now a different normal that has to be discovered for the road ahead. I pray that God envelopes you in His Love and under girds you with His strength and that His Peace infuses every part of your created being as you celebrate Ryan and the memories of his life that God has blessed you all with.

“ Dave,
"A life is not important except in the impact it has on other lives." A Hall of Fame baseball player who also was on this earth for too short of time once said. One only needs to see all the comments on this page, and the many others on social media to see Ryan reached this goal during his short stay. My thoughts and sympathy go out to you, your wife, and the rest of Ryan's family and friends.

JAY WESLEY KNAPP - May 11 at 01:20 PM

“ Sorry boys but Ry was my favorite. Maybe because I knew him best. He was such a huge help to me when I was coaching and running the fast pitch league. Worked with the girls and umpired any time I asked. After our first game that first year he pulled me aside. He said " Tammy, I'll ump any time I can but you gotta do me a favor. You have to stop letting the girls wear colored underwear under their white pants. It's too distracting. His face turned redder and I laughed till I cried. Then had a talk with the girls about their uniform. There are no words for how sorry I am to the loss of the great young man he was. Dave and Bev I know what the loss of a child does to your heart. I am deeply saddened that we now have that in common. The only part of this that makes me smile is I can picture he and Dad and PaPa catching up and talking baseball for hours. You are all in my thoughts and prayers. I am deeply, deeply sorry!!

The best friend a bereaved person can have is our Creator, God. May you find comfort as you pour out your heart to him in prayer because he cares for you. He invites you to throw all your burdens on him and he will sustain you in your time of grief.(1 Peter 5:7; Psalms 55:22).

“ Ryan was a student of mine back in 1994. At the time he was dating a young lady named Tracy Steinman. I knew and respected both families. The two of them decided to conquer Algebra 2, and they went to work. Right then I learned that Ryan could do whatever to which he put his mind. He entertained us. He championed our underdogs. And he showed us how to handle Algebra 2. He was the total package, and will always appreciate, who he was. God bless Ryan.

“ Coach, Beverly, Aaron, Mark and Derek. I watched Ryan grow up as I grew up. He was always around the fields no matter the sport, and he was a fun loving kid. I enjoyed taking him fishing with me, he wasn't your average kid fisherman,. He could hold his own on his own. He would get so excited when he caught a fish, and it was as much fun for me to watch him catch them as catch them myself. Thank you for trusting me enough to take him with me, as I cherish these memories. We were supposed to make a fishing trip to the mountains this spring, I regret that it never happened. Great kid, great man, great friend. The world is not as bright as it was yesterday without him, but our loss is Heavens gain. I enjoyed all the boys, but everyone knew Ryan was my favorite. I hope you find comfort in the memories and accomplishments he left behind, and the joy that you will have when you get to see him again in the presence of our Lord. Love to you all.

“ Dave,bev and family,I can't think of any thing that would lighten your pain.I've told my three sons ,that they are to bury me ,not me burying them,I think this is what GOD had in mind for us all.This is hard on me cause I coached ryan when he was 13 in pony ball.i felt like he could have been my son,the way love that game of baseball.His work habits by far was better than most high school boys.I noticed right away he led our players by how hard he played the game.They were times when I came to practice and was mad when I got there and about 5 minutes around ryan that left me and watching a great young ball player ,I knew he was going to be one of great ones here to play any sport.We lost one game that summer and that was when dave took him some where that day,I still tell that story to people to this day.Dave I'm so sorry this happened to a great family here in our area and I'll pray to god every day to comfort you and your family.I know ryan is resting in a place near GOD till that day when we are all call home to heaven to be with him up there,love you Dave,sammy grimes and family. .
