

W. GLENN SLAUGHTER
... Rites Tuesday

Mr. Slaughter Is Claimed By Death

MEBANE — W. Glenn Slaughter, area Civitan leader and former professional baseball player, died unexpectedly at his home on Rt. 2, Mebane, Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mr. Slaughter, 54, was a salesperson and consultant with Burlington Yarn in Madison and had been with Burlington Industries for 37 years. He was plant manager of Garbutt Throwing for 30 years.

Active for many years in baseball, he was a former professional player and also was a manager and player with a semi-pro team. He was a member of the Alamance Civitan Club, serving as president for three years. He was president of the club when it was chartered in 1949.

He was selected as Civitan of the Year in 1968 and served as lieutenant governor of Civitan Zone 9 in 1969-70. He won the East District Distinguished Award in 1966 and was a past member of the E.M. Holt School Committee. He was a member of the Church Council of Messiah Lutheran Church.

A native of South Carolina, he was the son of the late Clarence B. and Sally Allison Slaughter.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Kathleen Carter Slaughter of the home; four daughters, Mrs. Polly Rippey of Rt. 1, Eden College, Mrs. Catherine Sharpe of Lancaster, S.C., and Miss Laura June Slaughter and Miss Pamela Gwynn Slaughter, both of Silver Springs, Md.; two sons, W.A. (Bill) Slaughter of Rt. 2, Burlington, and Robert H. (Bob) Slaughter of Raleigh; one sister, Mrs. Catherine Sherrill of Clover, S.C.; two brothers, Tom Slaughter of Charlotte and Chester Slaughter of N. Charleston, S.C.; and 14 grandchildren.

Final rites will be conducted Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at Messiah Lutheran Church. The Rev. Henry Sink, pastor, will officiate. Burial will follow in Alamance Memorial Park.

The body will remain at Rich and Thompson Mortuary in Burlington until taken to the church to lie in state for 30 minutes prior to the funeral service.

Palbearers for the service will include Donald R. Bullis, Bob Pittman, Claude Walser, John Woodhair, A.S. Madden Jr., and F.B. Breeze. Honorary Palbearers will be members of the Alamance Civitan Club.

The family requests that in lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the scholarship fund of Alamance Civitan Club.

Clipped By:

timcopeland
Mon, May 25, 2015