Robert (Bob) Dustal's obituary:

Born 9-28-35 in Sayreville NJ, graduated from South River High School in 1955.

Played, coached, and managed in the Detroit Tigers organization from 1955-1970, pitching in the major leagues in 1963. After his baseball career he owned his own plumbing, irrigation, and lawn maintenance company. Wanting to try something new he bought and operated a restaurant in the Florida Keys after several years he returned to Lakeland and worked for the city for 15 years, retiring in 2007.

Bob loved fishing, bowling, restoring Cadillac El Dorados, going on cruises, but what he loved best was making people laugh with his corny jokes. Bob was preceded in death by his parents, Anne and Mike, his brother Alan, and grandson Blake. Survived by Pat, his wife of 58 years, sons Bobby (Jackie), Rick (Lisa), Kevin, brothers, Andrew and Michael 10 grandchildren, and 9 great grandchildren.

There will be a Viewing on Thursday December 3, 2015 from 2-3 PM with a Funeral Service to follow at 3 PM at Central Florida Casket Store & Funeral Chapel, 2090 E Edgewood Drive.
