

Hubert Willis (Lefty) Hardcastle, 58, well-known sports figure in Nashville, died yesterday after a lengthy battle with lung cancer.

Hardcastle was an outstanding sandlot and professional baseball figure here. He also was a long-time football and basketball official in high school circles before being hired by the Southeastern Conference as a basketball official.

The body is at Cole and Garrett Funeral Home where services will be held tomorrow at 10 a.m.

Hubert Willis (Lefty) Hardcastle died

Clipped By:

the4kerrs

Mon, May 23, 2016