William Morris Seltzer, 67, of Hagerstown, Md., passed away surrounded by his family Sunday, Jan. 28, 2018, at Washington Hospital Center.

Born Wednesday, June 14, 1950, in Philadelphia, Pa., he was the son of the late Dr. Harry Seltzer and Elizabeth Virginia (Grim) Seltzer.

Bill graduated from South Hagerstown High School in 1968, and went on to attend Wake Forrest University, where he played baseball.

He played baseball with Johnny's Leone's Baseball Team in Baltimore from 1967 to 1968.

Bill was drafted into Major League Baseball in 1970, where he was selected in the first round and the 23rd pick overall by the Baltimore Orioles, where he was a catcher.

Bill later was employed as a driver for UPS, serving the same route in the Martinsburg, W.Va., area for 30 years, until his retirement in 2002.

After retirement, he worked for ACE Hardware in Cavetown.

Bill coached various youth baseball leagues in the Hagerstown area, and was a member of the Mathias Hunt Club in Hardy County, W.Va.

Bill enjoyed hunting, fishing, golfing and training his German shorthair pointers.

Bill loved spending time with his family, especially his grandchildren.

He is survived by his wife of 48 years, Barbara Ann (Hipp) Seltzer; two daughters, Cori Seltzer Rohrer and husband, David, of Hagerstown, and Amy Smith and husband, Brian, of Smithsburg, Md.; one son, Benjamin Seltzer and wife, Wendy, of Berkeley Springs, W.Va.; one sister, Bonnie Parks and her husband, Ronnie, of Shippensburg, Pa.; and seven grandchildren, Sarah Rohrer, Emily Rohrer, Phoebe Rohrer, Samuel Rohrer, Dillon Smith, Zachary Smith and Kamryn Seltzer.

The family will receive friends Saturday, Feb. 3, 2018, from 1 to 4 p.m. at Douglas A. Fiery Funeral Home, 1331 Eastern Blvd. North, Hagerstown.

Services and interment will be held privately.
