

STANLEY A. LUJACK

Stanley A. Lujack, 58, of Bradenton, Fla., formerly of Connellsville, died Sunday at Mantee Memorial Hospital, Fla.

A native of Connellsville, Lujack was the older brother of John Lujack, famed Notre Dame All American.

Lujack played minor league baseball prior to locating in Bradenton, and was in business with a close friend, Deacon Bill McKechnie. He was president of the Florida State Left Handers' Golf Association and a ranking officer in the National Left Handers' Association.

He had been afflicted with cancer for the past ten years and served as chairman of the Manatee County Cancer Crusade in 1968. In 1970, he was awarded the sports father of the year award at Bradenton. He also served as a radio sports announcer, broadcasting the Milwaukee Braves spring training in the 1950s at Bradenton, Fla. He also served three years in the U. S. Navy during World War II.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Rae Conner Lujack, also a Connellsville native; one son, Stanley (Skip) Lujack of Brandon, Fla.; his mother, Mrs. John W. Lujack of Decatur, Ga.; two sisters, Mrs. Roy Doppelheuer of Decatur, Ga., and Mrs. John Bilut of Warren, Mich., and three brothers, John C. Lujack of Davenport, Iowa, W. V. Lujack of Utica, Mich., and Al R. Lujack of Bethesda, Md.

Clipped By:

timcopeland
Sun, May 31, 2015