

wood, is in charge.

David L. Cullen

CLARKSVILLE, Va. — David Lonzo Cullen, 66, died June 9, 2003, at the Veterans Hospital in Durham, N.C.

Born in Greenwood S.C., he was a son of Gilbert A. and Ollie Cullen. He attended East End Elementary in Greenwood, Fleming School and Sollers Point High School in Maryland. He was a Navy veteran and a welder. He was a member of Weston Chapel, A.M.E. Church in Greenwood, St. Matthews in Turners Station, Md., and Mt. Zion Baptist Church, Clarksville, Va.

Survivors include his parents; two sisters, Frances C. (Samuel) Norris, and Dorothy C. O'Guinn; two brothers, Gilbert A. Cullen Jr. and William Bernard (Sonja) Cullen; three sons, Larry Cullen, David Cullen and Jason Cullen; and two daughters, Tanika Cullen and Jessica Cullen.

Reese & Sons Mortuary, Annapolis, Maryland, is in charge.

Fannie Sue Grant

CLEVELAND, Ohio — Fannie Sue Grant, formerly of Abbeville, S.C., died June Friday, June 6, 2003, at Candlewood Nursing Home in Cleveland.

She was a daughter of the late Arthur E. Turner.

Survivors include two sisters, Leticia Bell Hampton of Detroit, Mich., and Seleda T. Mims of Abbeville, S.C.

Services were conducted by Boyd Funeral Home, Cleveland.

Announcement courtesy of Brown and Walker Funeral Home, Abbeville.

Tommy Murray

Tommy Wayne Murray, 61, of 233 E. Cambridge Ave., died Friday, June 13, 2003, at his home.

TOMMY MURRAY

Born in Marshall, Texas, he was a son of the late Ralph James and Frances Maurine Adams Murray. He was a printer for The Index-Journal and was retired from Moore Business Forms after 25 years of service. He was a former professional baseball player and coach, having been affiliated with various organizations including the Houston Astros, the Chicago Cubs and the Atlanta Braves. He also coached Post 20 baseball and the Greenwood Braves. He served in the Army Reserves and was a 32nd degree Mason and a Shriner. He was a 19-year member of IPTAY and a member of Hyde Park Baptist Church.

Survivors include a daughter, Renee Murray Tinsley of Hodge; three sons, Gregory Scott Murray, Jeromy Grayson Murray and Jason Kyle Murray, all of Greenwood; a sister, Peggy Murray Huffman of Marshall, Texas; his former wife, Carol Hill Murray of Greenwood; and four grandsons.

Services are at 11 Monday at Hyde Park Baptist Church, conducted by the Rev. Tommy Thurston. Burial is in Oakbrook Memorial Park. The body will be placed in the church at 10.

pallbearers are Daryl Tinsley, David Tinsley, Ronnie Brown, Spanky Baer, David Walters, Keith Coker, Jack Styron, Herbert McCoy, Danny Herring and Harry Herring.

Visitation is from 7-9 Sunday at Harley Funeral Home.

The family is at the home of a son, Greg Murray, 122 Kingston Road, Greenwood.

Memorials may be made to Hyde Park Baptist Church Building Fund, 308 W. Deadfall Road, Greenwood, S.C., 29649 or to the Make-A-Wish Foundation of America, 3550 North Central Ave., Suite 300, Phoenix, Ariz., 85012-2127.

Harley Funeral Home is in charge.

Scott Quarles

LAURENS — Joseph Scott Quarles, 22, resident of 753 W. Main St. went to be with the Lord on June 11, 2003 after receiving injuries from an automobile accident while on duty with the Laurens County Sheriff's Department.

Born in Charleston, January 23, 1981, he was a son of Dr. James William Quarles and Margaret Conoly Quarles. He attended Bynes High School in Spartanburg where he was a member of the Marching Band and was a graduate of Emerald

Clipped By:

timcopeland

Sat, May 16, 2015