

FUNERAL MONDAY FOR EX-DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC SAFETY

Samuel W. Mills Victim of Heart Attack; Served in City Office Two Years

Funeral services for Samuel W. Mills, 71, former city safety director who died Saturday morning at Bethesda hospital following a heart attack suffered Dec. 8, will be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at Mader-Peoples funeral home. Rev. Mr. Willis, Mt. Sterling, will officiate. Burial will be in Asbury chapel cemetery.

Mr. Mills was stricken suddenly while walking along the Newark road not far from this city. Removed to the hospital, his condition had grown gradually more critical until his death.

He served as safety director in 1926 and 1927 under the late Mayor W. H. Webster. He was once a professional baseball player and was a minor league umpire in the south. For the past eight years, he had lived in Zanesville, and was employed at the Zane hotel as a house detective.

Surviving are one sister, Miss Frances Mills, Hopewell, with whom he lived, and several nephews and nieces.
