
Robert T. Loftin Jr.

LOFTIN Robert T Loftin, Jr passed away on August 3, 2015 at the age of 79. Bobby grew up in Jacksonville, FL and was known for his hard working mentality and great athletic ability. A graduate of Lee High School in 1953, he was a standout varsity basketball and baseball player. After graduating from Lee, Bobby signed a professional baseball contract with the New York Giants where he played several years in their minor league system. Once his baseball career came to a close, he started his new career as an Allstate insurance agent where he eventually retired after 45 years. He was a loving and caring husband to Janet. Bobby and Janet were married for 55 wonderful years and always adored their family. Together they have three married children, Terri (Joe), Cindy (Brian), and Tommy (Valerie); and 10 grandchildren, Joey (Lindsay), Andy, Kelly, Brian, Becky, Blake, Alex, Ashley, Haley and Max. Bobby was a great and caring man and will be deeply missed. A Funeral Mass will be held on Saturday, August 8 at 11:00 am at Resurrection Catholic Church - 3383 University Blvd North Jacksonville, FL.
