
John Lawrence Caruso

Passed away in Roseville, CA. Born in San Jose, CA. to Cosimo "Robert" Caruso and Dorothy (Colletta) Skanderson. Pre-deceased by his parents, his step-father, Walter Skanderson and his brother Frank Caruso. John graduated from Balboa High School in San Francisco and was drafted by The Pittsburgh Pirates as a pitcher. He was also a pitcher in the Tri-Cities Team in the state of WA. After his baseball career ended, he became an avid bowler. He bowled many 300 games, at least 3 of them sanctioned by the ABC. John also enjoyed riding his Harley, hunting and camping. He had a very dry sense of humor, and to know him was to love him. John left behind his daughter Janet K. Ferrill, his sons John W. Caruso and James E. Caruso, daughters-in-law, Rita Caruso and Elva Caruso; 8 grandchildren; 4 great grandsons and his friend Kathleen Caruso. We will always love and miss you dad. A celebration of life event will be held to remember John at his home-away-from-home, Fireside Lanes, 7901 Auburn Bl., Citrus Heights, CA 95610 on Fri., Feb. 5, 2016 at 11 a.m.
