

DR. H. A. FESPERMAN

Former Local Pastor Dies In Salisbury

Dr. Harvey A. Fesperman of Faith in Rowan County, former pastor of the First Reformed United Church of Christ here, died in Rowan Memorial Hospital in Salisbury this morning after six days of critical illness. He was 79 years of age.

Dr. Fesperman, who also served as president of the Southern Synod of Evangelical and Reformed Church before his retirement in 1963, was the father of Mrs. Robert K. Arthur of Burlington.

He served the local church from 1945 until 1955, at which time he became president of the synod, with headquarters in Salisbury.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

Other survivors include Mrs. Fesperman, who also is a patient at Rowan Memorial Hospital; three other daughters, Mrs. Mary Brown Winters of Statesville, Mrs. Betty Grey Kepley of Timonium, Md., and Mrs. Katherine Fesperman Eanes of El Dorado, Ark., and See FORMER on Page 8-B

Harvey Fesperman obit 1

Clipped By:

jackmo77

Thu, May 4, 2017