
William "Bill" Cumpson(1927 - 2016)

William "Bill" Cumpson, born in Pittsburgh, PA in 1927, was called to Heaven on October 26th. Bill excelled in all sports. He attended High School in Monessen, PA, where he was in the Football Hall of Fame. His coach, Rab Curry, was so impressed with Bill that he sent for the great Bear Bryant to come watch him play. Bear Bryant then sent him a ticket to come to college in KY to play. The Bear called him "Bullet Bill" and "Daddy Long Legs". Bill also excelled in baseball, while playing with the NY Giants. His baseball career brought him to Sanford, FL, where he met his future wife, Florence Diminio in a play called "Frankie & Johnny", so when he moved to Daytona and opened his dance studio in 1959, he named it "Frankie & Johnny". After retiring from his dancing career, he became a real estate agent. Bill had a magnetic personality and never met a stranger. He was liked by everybody that knew him. He will be missed by everybody that knew him and especially by his life-long friend, Peggy Caldwell, who states that Bill was one of a kind, not only movie star handsome, but friendly, mysterious & hilariously funny. He is predeceased by his mother and father, stepfather Paul Sciulli and wife Florence and stepson Courtney. He is survived by his brother, Professor Paul J. Sciulli of Columbus, OH. Condolences can be shared at www.legacy.com. My heart will go on for you...

Published in Daytona Beach News-Journal from Oct. 28 to Oct. 30, 2016
