

Harland "Dale" Mace

June 8, 1937 - May 5, 2018

Harland "Dale" Mace, 80, a lifetime resident of Indianapolis, passed away May 5, 2018. He was born June 8, 1937 to the late Harland Dale, Sr. and Lorene K. Davis Mace.

Dale was a 1955 graduate of Arsenal Tech High School and a 1960 graduate of Indiana Central College (University of Indianapolis) with majors in Art, Physical Education, and Guidance. He received his Masters Degree in Education from Butler University.

Dale signed a contract with the Cincinnati Reds baseball organization in 1958. He went on to teach in the Warren Township School District for the next 44 years. Dale began his career teaching at Woodview Junior High School for 12 years, taught an additional 30 years at Stonybrook Middle School, and finished his last year at Morehead Elementary School. He was a coach of baseball, golf, football, wrestling, and cross country. Dale initiated and sponsored a special fishing club for several years for his students. He retired in 2004, and was appointed a Sagamore of the Wabash, Indiana's highest honor, for his service and dedication to his students.

Dale was a former member of Englewood Christian Church, Post Road Christian where he served as a deacon, Circle City Church, and is a current member of Trader's Pointe Christian Church.

Dale is survived by his loving wife of 39 years, Bonnie E. (Wise) Mace and his four children. He has three sons with Patty Ross Farrell: Brian J. (Angie), Brant K. (Penny) and Trey (Jill) Mace. In addition to his sons, Dale and Bonnie have a daughter, Jodi M. Simpson. Dale was a devoted grandfather to Zachary and Allison Mace and Tanner and Makayla Simpson. He is also survived by a sister, Donna Spears. His brother, Richard L. Mace, preceded him in death.

Active in life and spirit, Dale was an avid fisherman and lifetime member of Bassmaster. He played golf with a passion and was a former member of Pleasant Run Golf Club. For the last nine years, Dale has been working out with a group of fellow Parkinson's fighters at Rock Steady Boxing.

“ My husband and I have been friends with Bonnie and Dale a long time. He was a compassionate man who loved God and his family. We have such good memories of our camping trips, fishing, and just the joy that he had for life. We will miss his spirit and love.

“ I remembered that Dale prevented a conflict between two people from escalating during a meeting. When he spoke both individuals respected his abilities to help them resolve their conflict with one another.
