
JOHN R. LOPEMAN

JOHN R. LOPEMAN John R. Lopeman, 88, of Red Bluff, CA passed away on Saturday 6/13/15. His death was preceded by his wife Mable. John was born in Kansas but spent the majority of his life in the Bay Area until retiring to Red Bluff. John was a Marine and upon being discharged became a professional baseball player with the Philadelphia Philly's organization. Later he worked for the U S Postal Service and retired as a postal supervisor. John loved to travel and had a passion for golf. John is survived by his son Michael and step-children Toni Cramer and Robbie Blue. He is also survived by numerous nieces and nephews, grandchildren, great grandchildren and great, great grandchildren. Services will be held on Wednesday June 24 at the Oak Hill Cemetery at 10 am.

Published in Daily News from June 20 to June 23, 2015
