Condolence from Cynthia Engram on November 5th, 2015 2:02 pm

To the family and friends of Boogie, My deepest and most sincere condolences to you all. I remember the fun times we had laughing in school with Craig and Tank. Hope to meet you all again in Heaven. Lovingly, your schoolmate (Heimendale thru Marion-Franklin) Cynthia Walker-Engram

Condolence from Kimberly Elliott on November 5th, 2015 3:19 pm

Elisha (& Family) My heart goes out to you during this time. The smile on your father's face looks so familiar...when I think of happier times when we have all seen it on YOURS. May God hold your heart and give you that peace that surpasses understanding today and in the days to come. Cherish your wonderful memories. You are so blessed to have them! Praying for you and your family. God Bless.

Condolence from Pam Gardine Darrington on November 5th, 2015 10:29 pm

I am saddened to hear about Eddie-I remember him as Inez' little brother. He always had a smile on his face. I followed the Reds and was tickled to see him on the team. I offer prayers and sympathy for his family at this difficult time. God bless.

Condolence from Mike Kelly on November 6th, 2015 11:23 am

Elisha, I extend my deepest sympathy to you and your family. I pray that God will provide you strength and peace. I care. Mike Kelly

Condolence from Mike Goldshot on November 6th, 2015 8:06 pm

I met Eddie thru Reds Fantasy Camp-what a truly wonderful person who was always smiling and ready to help us 'wannabe' baseball players.

Please accept my condolences on the loss of Eddie. Please have peace in knowing Eddie is in Heaven with our Lord and Saviour and we will meet again.

Mike "Goldie" Goldshot

Condolence from Geoff Combe on November 18th, 2015 9:24 am

To the Milner Family

I am saddened for your loss of Eddie. I played a couple of seasons with Ed in the minor leagues and though it was some 35 years ago I still fondly remember his great smile. May the great memories of his life warm you and may God bless you all.

Condolence from Rick Duncan on November 18th, 2015 1:02 pm

I played baseball with Eddie in Nashville in 1979. He was a great teammate. His energy was contagious. I am grateful he was part of my life. May the peace of God and our hope in Christ encourage and sustain your family as you go through this time of grief.
