William Kent Kollman

(February 20, 1948 - August 03, 2015)

William Kent KOLLMAN, 67, of Lebanon, died Monday, August 3, 2015 at his home. Born in Bedford, OH on February 20, 1948 to Burton W. & Marian J. (nee: Richards) Kollman, he was drafted by the Cleveland Indians in 1966 and played baseball for the University of Michigan before graduating in 1970. He was a graduate of R.B. Chamberlain High School in Twinsburg, Ohio where he was inducted into the Athletic Hall of Fame. He worked in sales for 30+ years, but his passion was sports as he enjoyed playing all types, watching his children and grandchildren play, and catching a game on tv.

Survivors include his devoted wife of 43 years, Lauren (nee: Stell) Kollman, two sons, Thomas Kollman (Kathleen) of Dayton and Lawrence Kollman (Courtney) of Lebanon, one daughter, Julie Effler (Douglas) of Trenton, two brothers, Robert Kollman and Scott Kollman (Susan) both of Twinsburg, OH, four grandchildren, Amanda & Benjamin Effler and Henry & Harlow Kollman, four nieces and five nephews.

Visitation will be held Tuesday, August 11th from 4-6:00 PM, with a memorial service immediately following, all at the Oswald-Hoskins Funeral Home, Lebanon. Reverend Doug Sibcy will officiate. Memorial donations are requested to Lebanon Youth Baseball. Online condolences are available at www.hoskinsfh.com.
