

LeRoy 'Corky' Reddell, ex-pro baseball player

LeROY E. REDDELL

SCOTTSDALE — LeRoy E. "Corky" Reddell, 37, a former professional baseball player and rancher in Arizona, died Wednesday in a local hospital.

Mr. Reddell, 8701 E. Sheridan, was born in Phoenix and lived in this area all his life. In 1953 he won 20 games pitching for the Tucson Cowboys and was honored as one of Arizona's outstanding athletes of that year. At one time he also managed the Globe-Miami baseball club.

Survivors include his wife, Doris; a daughter, Terri; two sons, Steve of Scottsdale and Craig of Camp Verde; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Reddell of Camp Verde and a sister, Mrs. Fay Hill of Scottsdale; two brothers John and Bill, both of Camp Verde.

Services will be at 2 p.m. tomorrow at A. L. Moore and Sons Mortuary, 333 W. Adams. Burial will be in Green Acres Memorial Gardens.

Armando Menozzi

Clipped By:

timcopeland
Sun, May 10, 2015