

Joseph William Weber

March 4, 1921 - September 3, 2015

Joseph W. Weber 94 years old of Toms River passed away September 3, 2015 at home. Joseph was born in Rochester, NY. He retired in 1984 from Morris School System after 20 years of service to the district as Administrative Assistant to the Superintendent and as Assistant Principal at Frelinghuysen Junior School.

Mr. Weber was a high school studies teacher and Guidance Counselor before becoming a school administrator. He taught at North Syracuse High, North Syracuse and was a Guidance Counselor at Solvay Middle and High Schools in Solvay, NY before joining the Morris School System.

Mr. Weber was a 1939 graduate of Edison Technical High School in Rochester and a 1948 graduate of Syracuse University and earned a masters degree in 1949 from the University.

In both High School and College he played baseball, basketball and soccer. He was Head Coach of baseball at Assumption High School and Christian Brothers Academy in Syracuse where both his teams won city championships. He later coached soccer and baseball at LeMoyne College in Syracuse. His soccer team won the school's very first game in the college's history. He also served as head soccer coach at his alma mater. In 1976 Mr. Weber umpired the Army-Navy baseball game. He received a 30 year baseball Umpires award in 1995. Mr. Weber served in the armed forces from 1943 to 1946. Following the war he played professional baseball at Hamilton, Ontario and Watertown, NY.

He lived in Greenbriar Woodlands, Toms River before his death and was instrumental in organizing its Golf Club. He served as the first secretary and third golf president in 1990. He participated with the renowned Sam Snead at the Opening of the Back Nine Golf Course at Greenbriar.

He was predeceased by his daughter Judy Weber.

Surviving are his wife Lillian, Three daughters Susan, Dorothy and Nancy. Two grandsons, Brian and Andrew. Sister Evelyn Miller, nieces, nephews and step children Robert, Nancy and David Breitbarth.

Visiting will be Thursday 2-4 & 7-9pm. at the Silverton Memorial Funeral Home 2482 Church Rd., Toms River. A mass of a Christian Burial will be held on Friday 9:45am at St.

Luke's RC Church 1674 Old Freehold Rd., Toms River. Interment Private. In lieu of flowers donations in Joseph's Memory can be made to the St. Luke's Food Pantry.
www.silvertonmemorial.com.