Dr. William T. Clark

Boonville: Dr. William T. Clark, 89, a 25-year resident of Woodgate, New York, died March 15, 1991, at the Sunset Nursing Home, Boonville, following a series of illnesses.

Dr. Clark was born August 10, 1901, in Buffalo, New York. He attended South Park High School and the University of Buffalo, from which he received Bachelor of Science (1923) and M.D. degrees (1925). He also received the degree of Doctor of Public Health from The Johns Hopkins University in 1937.

A gifted athlete and track star in high school, Dr. Clark participated on the track team at the University also. In 1924 he pitched professional baseball with the Buffalo Bisons in the International League.

Beginning his medical career as an intern at Children's Hospital in Buffalo, Dr. Clark later affiliated with the Edward J. Meyer Memorial Hospital (now Erie County Medical Center), of which he became superintendent in 1941. He also served as professor and head of the Department of Hygiene and Preventive Medicine, School of Medicine, University of Buffalo.

In 1945 Dr. Clark accepted the position of Superintendent of the New York State Masonic Home in Utica, New York, a position he held until his retirement in 1966. At retirement Dr. Clark and his wife, the former Violet Barnum Clark (d. 1980), settled in Woodgate, New York. The couple was married in Buffalo on June 25, 1927.

Dr. Clark was a member of the Onondaga County Medical Society, New York State Medical Society, American Medical Association, New York State Public Health Association, and a Fellow of the American Public Health Association. Masonic affiliations included Highland Lodge #835 (Buffalo) and Ziyara Temple Shrine (Utica).

Dr. Clark is survived by one son, William A. of Lockport, New York; two daughters, Mrs. Frederick (Marilyn) Dunlap of Hamilton, New York, and Mrs. Earl W. (Diane) Duck of San Antonio, Texas; six grandchildren and five great-grandsons.

A memorial service will be held Saturday afternoon, March 30, at 2 at the First Presbyterian Church of Boonville, with the Reverend Nelson B. Soggs (a nephew) officiating. In lieu of flowers, friends may consider a contribution to a charity of one's choice. There are no calling hours. The Trainor Funeral Home, Inc., of Boonville, is in charge of arrangements.

Obituaries

Mildred E. Daley

KAYUTA LAKE - NEW HARTFORD - Mrs. Mildred E. Daley, 90, of Ferncliff Rd., Kayuta Lake, and Washington Dr., New Hartford, passed away Sunday, March 10, 1991, at Faxton Children's Hospital.

She was born in Utica on March 31, 1900, the daughter of John Marcus and Johanna Norbert Zimmerman Herrick, and received her education in Utica. On June 11, 1919, in St. Joseph's Church, she was married to Orla K. Daley. Mr. Daley died in 1965. For several years Mrs. Daley was employed in the Children's Department at Uptown Shoppers City. She was a member of the Church of Our Lady of Lourdes, Utica, a 43 year member of the Woman's Club of Our Lady of Lourdes, the Kayuta Lake Improvement Association and the Ferncliff Campers Association.

Mrs. Daley is survived by a daughter and son-in-law, Marie and John (Red) Moran, Sr., of Kayuta Lake, NY; a sister-in-law, Pearl Schumaker, of Irondequoit, NY; two grandsons, John Moran, Jr., of Alder Creek, and Patrick Moran and his wife, Starlyn, of Liverpool; three great granddaughters, Rosemarie, Kristina and Patricia Lynn Moran; and her two special friends, Winnie Kauth and June Stetson.

Mrs. Daley was predeceased by a son, Ralph Daley, in 1920; four sisters, Gertrude Wray, Clara Bowby, Florence Andrew and Lillian Blum; two brothers, John Herrick and Walter Herrick; a half sister, Minnie Cheeseman; and three half brothers, Eugene, William and George Herrick.

The funeral was held March 13th at the Heintz Funeral Home, 1517 Whitesboro St., and at Our Lady of Lourdes Church. Interment will be in Mt. Olivet Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, contributions in Mrs. Daley's memory may be made to the Church of Our Lady of Lourdes Memorial Fund.

Mrs. Daley's family would like to thank Msgr. H. Charles Sewall, Dr. Charles Markson and the staff of Faxton Children's Hospital's 4 North, the Prospect and Boonville Ambulance Corps and the Remsen Rescue Unit for the care and concern shown to Mrs. Daley during her illness.
